- There is a loss of about $4000.
- Fr. Nick stated that ~$1000 would be a more accurate number when adding up the late fees that we were consistently paying on the credit card and other bills throughout the year.
- We were also in the red last year at this time.
- Ellen Valvo inquired as to what falls under the “rent” category, and Fr. Nick replied that it is Jack & Jill currently paying $600/month, and donations from AA.

New Business

- Mark Korzelius motioned to appoint and confirm Mike Somer as the Vestry Treasurer, and Deanna-Marie DiPirro as the Vestry Clerk, for this Vestry term. Eric Boron seconded the motion. The motion passed by a unanimous vote.

Update of Bank Signature Cards

- Fr. Nick that we would need to appoint and confirm the Vestry Treasurer and Vestry Clerk for this term.
- Fr. Nick stated that every year the signatures on the bank accounts are updated to include the new warden. These bank accounts also include the treasurer. Fr. Nick is looking to add his signature to these bank accounts, which will allow him the information needed to assess our finances.
- Fr. Nick stated that historically, Paula Cramer takes care of Accounts Receivable, and Mike Somer takes care of Accounts Payable. However, Mike Somer recorded all of the parish giving this year.
- Mark Korzelius suggests setting up a meeting with himself, Fr. Nick, and Mike Somer. Discussion took place on how to assist Mike Somer, and areas where he may need additional help. We currently have the church credit card on automatic bill-pay, so there are currently no late fees, and our Accounting company pays the taxes, which corrects any fines or penalties.
- Eric Boron motioned to change the bank signature cards to include Mark Korzelius, Sr. Warden, Pete Schlau, Jr. Warden, and Fr. Nick, on all bank accounts except the Altar Guild account. Irene Ehde seconded the motion. The motion passed by a unanimous vote.

Carpet Replacement Update/Recovery of Deposit

- Fr. Nick discussed where we are with the carpet situation. He mailed a letter to Eric Ion, both by regular mail and certified mail, and they were returned to us.
- Eric Boron offered information on the process if we choose to take him to small claim’s court.
- Vestry discussion took place, and Fr. Nick will move forward with the process. He will go to Grand Island Town Hall and see if he can file there.
- Fr. Nick will then get a quote from John Griffin, and possibly a contact through Allie Porter’s principal.

- Fr. Nick stated that under the carpet there is asbestos, which will most likely result in a larger quote than we originally were given. Ellen Valvo wanted to add the Acolyte room floor to the list as well.
- Pete Schlau stated that the original quote was for an upgrade, and that we may want to look at rolled carpet instead of tiles. Pete has concerns about taking Eric Ion to court, thinking he probably does not have assets to collect on, as he concluded from the research he completed to try to find any additional information he could.
- Eric Boron suggests we start the filing process in small claims court, and the Vestry agreed. Fr. Nick will go to Town Hall and see if he can begin the process.

Endowment Funding of Blessing Box

- Fr. Nick discussed the idea of the Blessing Box project.
- Pete Schlau offered to pay for the materials to build the Blessing Box from the Endowment Fund. He will bring the idea to the Endowment Board and see if they are interested in supporting the project. He will then present it to Vestry.
- Fr. Nick will keep everyone posted.

Cleaning Services

- Fr. Nick stated that in July, there will be no more J2A families cleaning the church.
- We will need to bring in a cleaning service or hire a Sexton. If we hire a Sexton, we will have to come up with a job description and rate of pay for this position.
- Fr. Nick stated that we will have to come up with a succession plan before then.
- Discussion took place regarding the J2A families that clean, and when the cleaning is set to stop, as it will most likely be July, instead of September.
- Fr. Nick will get quotes from companies for cleaning services.
